MISCELLANEOUS READING. There is, without doubt, a great deal of flour yet to come to market, and the present prices, as high perhaps as they will be, will cause holders to send it forward, which we would advise them to do; and not only flour, but all other articles of food that they can send. Owing to the high rate of exchange which ruled all the spring, our merchants bought very sparingly of bacon from the North or West, hence our limited supply; but there are large quantities of this article in Western Virginia and Tennessee, enough, we think, to supply the entire army; and we think the present prices will bring that here at an early day also. As our soldiers must be fed, and well fed too, we again say to all, send forward everything which you think would be wanting.—Richmond Enquirer.

NECROES VOLUNTEERING .- About fifty free negroes in Amelia county have offered themselves to the Government for any service. In our neighboring city of Petersburg, two hundred free negroes offered for any work that might be assigned to them, either to fight under white officers, dig ditches, or anything that could show their desire to serve Old Virginia. In the same city, a negro hackman came to his master, and insisted, with tears in his eyes, that he should accept all his savings $100, to help equip the volunteers. The free negroes of Chesterfield have made a similar proposition .-Such is the spirit, among bond and free, through the whole of the State. Those who calculate on a different state of things, will soon discover their mistake .- Rich Dis.

REMARKABLE COINCIDENCE.-The chapter of the Old Testament prescribed by the Episcopal Calendar to be read by the clergy on the morning of the third Sunday after Easter, (Sunday, week,) is the 3d chapter of the Prophet Joel, beginning at the 9th verse.-Every one who heard it must have been struck with the singular coincidence of the words with the solemn events of the day and time. It begins as follows: "Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles: 335 Broadway, cor. of Anthony street, New York. Prepare for war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them

"Beat your ploughshares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong." LIGHT IN THE NORTH!-We are happy to see that all the true men of the North have not yet yielded to the terrorism which has so effectually crushed out the freedom of the press in their leading commercial cities .-The Bangor (Maine) "Democrat," Concord (N. II.) Statesman-the old Woodbury and Pierce organ of New Hampshire, and the Hartford "Times," the Seymour organ of the Connecticut Democracy, speak out like sensible men and patriots upon the present crisis. The Hartford "Times" has an able article against the abolition invasion of the South, and in favor of the right of State secession. Its article on the subject is exceedingly able and emphatic .- Rich. Enquirer. GROCERIES. WE are now in receipt of our Spring supply of choice FAMILY GROCERIES, consist-
